FUNDAMENTALS OF PAINTING

Anam Cara Writer's and Artist's Retreat presents 'Fundamentals of Painting' with Seamus Berkeley

If you are new to painting or have been painting for some time, input on your work with new ideas for composition, starts, color and values along with individualized observations can help you move toward renewed expressiveness.

Seamus will present information to the group and give one-on-one instruction that will deal specifically with fundamentals such as values, color and brushwork. To learn more about this award winning instructor, visit www.seamusberkeley.com.
